Class Will

We the Senior Class of '53 being of sound mind and body will the following to the lower classmen.

I, Jim Sinnett, will to Chuck Bradley my dark curly hair. The girls really like it, Chuck.

I, Harold Wingerson, will to Nancy Stamper my ability to always have my English assignment done.

I, Larry Lynch, will to Harry Linn part of my height. The girls are getting taller, Harry.

I, Gerald McDaniels, will to Frieda Taylor a seat in my Dodge.

I, Don Day, will to Merle Naeve my ability with figures, especially math. figures.

I, Richard Higgins, will to Pat Goodrich my ability to drive down the right side of the road.

I, Jerry Behrendsen, will to Bill Campbell my out of town connections. Beware, Bill!

I, Darwin Pedersen, will to Leroy Halligan a few years of my age so he will be old enough for the senior girls.

I, Shirley Hasenbank, will to Shirley Ackerman my noon hangout. Don't lose the map.

I, Iola Claussen, will to Nina Neel my athletic ability. With what you have and mine combined, you should do very well, Nina.

I, Cecilia McLaughlin, will to Nancy Lynch my baby blue eyes. Take my advice and use them wisely.

I, Bonnie Stoulil, will to Ralph Himrod my ability to get along with the boys and girls from Humboldt, especially at the skating rink.

I, Mary Ford, will to Daryl Granner my ability to use rubber bands and compasses in physics class.

I, Norma Higgins, will to Lorraine Saathoff my shy quiet ways.

I, Mary Ford, will to Janice Murphy my interest in Humboldt boys.

I, Mary Landolt, will to Mike Gleason my ability to look innocent at all times--even when guilty.

I, Wilbur Bruner, will to Delores Peterson my singing ability. Make good use of it, Delores.

I, Cecilia McLaughlin,will to Merna Doeringsfeld my twirling ability. Use it well, Merna!

I, Richard Higgins, will to Jim Landolt my little black book of girls' telephone numbers. Don't lose it, Jim, as I might need it again.

The Black and Gold is published each year by the senior class. It is financed through its non-profitable advance sale to the public at far less than cost. The difference is made up by other profit-making enterprises of the senior class. It is the wish of the class to publish a good yearbook at a reasonable cost to you.

After a year's absence, the Nu-Z was once again a complete student-run newspaper. The Nu-Z was bi-monthly and at the end of the school year sixteen issues had been published. The Nu-Z covered both school and community news. Advisors were Mr. Moore of the English department and Mr. Franken from the Social Science department.

Paw Belsnickle, a mountaineer, has six daughters whom he'd like to marry off. A young city medical student and his aunt get marooned at the mountain cabin when their car breaks down. The daughter, Ceelie, decides she wants the handsome stranger for her husband. After much feuding, the medical student is rescued from the fate of marriage to Ceelie and she gets a hillbilly boy for a husband who really wants her.

This was the first year in G.C.'s football history that the Tigers won a 4-C Conference title.

Baseball

Front: Wilbur Bruner, Gerald McDaniels, Don Day, Daryl Granner Jim Landolt, Chuck Bradley. Back: Harry Linn, Larry Lynch, Coach Gordon LeWarne, Mike Gleason, Bill Campbell.

The 1952 baseball season was a very successful one. The Tigers played a total of ten games and came out on the top of eight of these mainly through the pitching efforts of two graduated seniors, Darrell DeGroote and Pat Cavanaugh. The "stick work" was very good with five players hitting over 300. Gerald McDaniels led with 466.
